

A native of the Washington Metropolitan area, Reverend Dr. Beverly Janet Goines, is an ordained minister in the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). Called to National City Christian Church in Washington, District of Columbia as a Lilly Endowment Fellow in 2003, she currently serves as the Assistant Pastor. Her primary responsibilities include pastoral care, counseling, and worship leadership.

She earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Technical Writing from Carnegie Mellon University, a Master of Divinity from Howard University School of Divinity, in addition to a Master of Philosophy in Theology and Religious Studies and a Ph.D. in Religion and Culture from The Catholic University of America. Rev. Goines taught Jewish-Christian Relations at The Catholic University of America and worked in the Ethics, Religion, and the Holocaust department of the Center for Advanced Holocaust Studies at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum. She is currently a Smithsonian Institution and Georgetown University Postdoctoral Fellow at the National Museum of African American History and Culture for the 2018-2019 academic year.

Dr. Goines has also worked in the public and private sector as a technical writer, program manager, and project manager. She has experience in the financial services industry, where she earned and currently holds property, casualty, life, and health insurance licenses.

Dr. Goines is committed to the ecumenical and interfaith movement as a means to repair the political, social, and economic fractures that have been caused by religious intolerance.
