

Rev. Dr. Ken Brooker Langston
Board of Trustees – Class of 2020

Rev. Dr. Ken Brooker Langston is a member of Michigan Park Christian Church in Washington, DC. He is the executive director of the Disciples Center for Public Witness and the director of the Disciples Justice Action Network (DJAN). He also serves as a Public Policy Advisor to Disciples Home Missions and the Office of the General Minister and President of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in the United States and Canada. In addition to serving on the Board of Trustees of the National Convocation, Ken serves on the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of Interfaith Worker Justice, the Nominating Committee of the Participating Members Committee of the National Religious Campaign Against Torture (NRCAT), the Executive Team of the Working Group of the Ecumenical Poverty Initiative, and the Steering Committee of Let Justice Roll, and Fundraising Chair on the Board of Directors of Creation Justice Ministries. He also serves on our denomination's Social Witness Task Force and participates as an invited member of the Justice Table. Ken is married to Emily (who currently serves as Dean of the Graduate Program at St. John's College in Annapolis, MD), is the father of Rachael (who is a senior at St. John's College in Annapolis, MD), and, for a little over a week now, the owner of a 9 month old rescue dog named Hector. The gifts that Ken tries to bring to the Board of Trustees of the National Convocation are vision, strategic thinking, networking, and connections to justice advocacy.
