

Reverend Joanne Walker Flowers, PhD
Board Trustee – Class 2020

Epidemiologist Joanne Walker Flowers is a retired college professor, administrator, and Navy commander. As ordained clergy, she has taken her ministry of health and healing to many countries around the world and loves any opportunity to promote wellness. In her ministry, she emphasizes the importance of spiritual formation, building social capital, and the church's role in our well-being. Her hobbies include researching her ancestry, gardening, and journaling.

The gift I bring to the Board is administrative skills and an analytical mind.
