

National Convocation Board Meeting Report
Sue Gray, Ministry Leaders for Ministers' Wives and Husbands
December 5-7, 2019

Ephesians 4:3 "Endeavoring to keep the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

The year of 2019 has been a good year. We continue to have our conference call every 3rd Thursday where we have great spiritual Bible studies and prayer. Our ministry was designed to benefit the Star Supporter Fund and CTS Scholarship Fund which supports ministers achieving advanced degrees. We are learning to work together in Unity and realizing Unity is the goal that we are striving to achieve for the 2019-2020 fiscal year and beyond. My prayer is that we have no brokenness but wholeness in our ministry. Also, as ministers' wives and husbands, we bond together to help each other to be the vital support for our husbands and wives who are ministers. Sis. Bridget Perkins has volunteered to help us reach some of our younger ministers' wives, along with working on the future with social media since now is the age of social media, so we will be able to communicate even more with our ministry, and also with our past women who may just need to hear a voice to say we miss you and you are not forgotten.

We have studied together, prayed together, laughed together and cried together. Thanks be to God for the Ministers' Wives and Husbands for what He is doing in our lives to bring us together to be able to help someone else in need.

We look forward to the 2020 National Convocation in Ft. Worth, Texas.

Respectfully submitted,
Sue Gray
